The corporate governance of Wacom Co., Ltd. (“the Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

The Company believes that it is a foundation for sustainable growth of corporate value, to fulfill social responsibilities as well as its compliance to legislations as a listed company conducting business globally, and to enhance transparency of management and reliabilities of disclosure, which will bring benefit to its shareholders, customers, and other stakeholders. Therefore, the Company believes that its most important responsibilities of every business group are to fully commit to compliance that can realize “Vision, Mission and Value” as its basic policy for corporate activities, and to establish and operate an effective internal control system that should continuously enhance corporate governance.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

(Principle 1-4 Cross-Shareholdings)

The Company may engage in cross-shareholdings if it finds positive synergy effect from the viewpoint of business strategies and economic rationale when it mainly looks into possibility of meaningful opportunities to realize for its future businesses. However, the Company shall not hold shares only for the purpose of short-term dividends nor capital gains. If the Company engages in cross-shareholdings, it shall regularly check business relation with the issuer and proceed to examination on sale of shares held in case it concludes that the cross-shareholding does not contribute to enhancement of the business relation. Regarding the exercise of voting rights pertaining to cross-shareholdings, the Company shall take into account whether each proposal will contribute to improve corporate value of the Company, not solely depend on the business relation with the issuer.

(Supplementary Principle 1-4①② Cross-Shareholdings)

When the shareholder engaged in cross-shareholding with the Company conveys its intention to sell the shares issued by the Company, it shall not enforce holding the shares by inducing to change business conditions against the shareholder. The Company shall regularly check business relation with the shareholder and ensure that no unfair trade attributable to the cross-shareholding has been conducted.

(Principle 1-7 Related Party Transactions)

Regarding transactions with related parties conducted by members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors shall make resolution on whether to approve the transactions through careful deliberation in accordance with the Japanese Companies Act and other legislations. The Company has established a structure to properly monitor the transactions approved by the Board of Directors, enforcing report to the Board of Directors on the member engaged in the transactions. For the resolution, the Board of Directors shall make a careful decision not to be against the common interests of the shareholders in light of duty of diligence and loyalty.

(Principle 2-6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners)

It is not applicable due to no corporate pension plan in the Company.

(Principle 3-1 Full Disclosure)

(i) Corporate vision, business strategy, and business plan

The Company's corporate vision, business strategies, and business plan are stated in the Annual Report, in which "Wacom Chapter 2: Medium-Term Business Plan" (from FY 3/2019 to FY 3/2022)" announced in May 2018 is featured. Explanatory presentation material of Wacom Chapter 2 is also referable.

(ii) Basic view and basic policy of corporate governance based on each principle of the concerned code (draft)

The Company believes that it is a foundation for sustainable growth of corporate value, to fulfill social responsibilities as well as its compliance to legislations as a listed company conducting business globally, and to enhance transparency of management and reliabilities of disclosure, which will bring benefit to its shareholders, customers, and other stakeholders. Therefore, the Company believes that its most important responsibilities of every business group are to fully commit to compliance that can realize "Vision, Mission and Value" as its basic policy for corporate activities, and to establish and operate an effective internal control system that should continuously enhance corporate governance.

(iii) The Board of Directors' policies and procedures in determining the compensation for the senior management and directors

The Company believes the compensation should be equivalent to contribution to growth of corporate value, and determined to reflect its business performance and trend of compensation level observed in similar industries.

Compensation for members of the Board of Directors is composed of performance-linked and non-performance-linked portion, and proportion is determined by each position and distributed within 20 to 40% for performance linked and 60 to 80% for non-performance-linked, as follows:

- Performance-linked compensation is applied to members of the Board of Directors excluding outside directors and directors who are members of Audit Committee, and composed of “short-term incentive” and “long-term incentive.”
 “Short-term incentive” is designed to reflect attainment of financial target of the Company and individual performance for a single financial year, and paid once a year.
 “Long-term incentive” is designed to reflect middle-to-long term financial target and stock price of the Company to share common interests with shareholders. Whether to execute this program shall be determined by comprehensive examination on factors including actual financial performance of the Company for the prior fiscal year.
 Indicators for the performance-linked compensation shall be proposed by the Compensation Committee to the Board of Directors for resolution every year.
- Non-performance-linked compensation is fixed, paid monthly, and applied to all members of the Board of Directors.

(iv) The Board of Directors’ policies and procedures in appointment and dismissal of the senior management, and in nominating candidate of director

Regarding representative director and directors of the Board of Directors, and executive managers, the Nominating Committee headed by an outside director set the criteria for selecting candidate and shall make a proposal to the Board of Directors for nomination. To select candidate, the Board of Directors comprehensively takes into main account understanding and sympathy for corporate vision and strategies, leadership and its qualification, ability of business execution and its expertise, and job experience in listed company or global company.

If representative director, a director, or an executive manager no longer satisfies the criteria for candidate selection, or violate criteria for dismissal of representative director set by the Nominating Committee, the Committee shall make a proposal to the Board of Directors for dismissal of the said person.

(v) Explanation on the individual appointment, dismissal, and nomination, when the Board of Directors make appointment or dismissal of senior management, and appointment of candidate for director, based on (iv).

When the Board of Directors make appointment of candidate for director or proposal for dismissal of director in office, the Company shall make explanation of the said person in the Notice of the Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting. Concerning important executive managers, the Company shall post their names on its website once appointed.

(Supplementary Principle 4-1① Roles and Responsibilities of the Board(1))

While the Board of Directors makes resolutions in accordance with the Japanese Companies Act, etc., it also conducts efficient management by delegating its authority of business execution to group CEO (Chief Executive Officer) and responsible person of each department, based on the rules of the Board of Directors and the basic policy of internal controls, etc. Regarding the scope of authority, the Company controls business execution by clarifying the authority in the Delegation of Authority which it reviews regularly. (For the internal control system, please refer “Reference material: Schematic of Internal Control System and Risk Management System” in this “Corporate Governance Report”).

(Supplementary Principle 4-1③ Roles and Responsibilities of the Board(1))

In April 2017, the Board of Directors established the Nominating Committee, which set the selection criteria for the qualifications and figures of representative director, selected a candidate to succeed representative director upon the criteria, and proposed to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall decide a candidate of succeeding representative director through thorough discussion upon proposal by the Nominating Committee.

The Company continues examination on establishing premeditated successor training for the future.

(Supplementary Principle 4-2① Roles and Responsibilities of the Board(2))

In November 2018, the Company established the Compensation Committee of which an outside director takes office as a chairperson. The Company shall be engaged in review and institutional design of the compensation scheme for directors of the Board of Directors and take into consideration adoption of the performance-linked compensation utilizing treasury stock.

(Supplementary Principle 4-3②③ Roles and Responsibilities of the Board(3))

In April 2017, the Company established the Nominating Committee of which an outside director takes office as a chairperson, and engaged in selection of a candidate to succeed representative director. The current representative director assumed office in April 2018.

The Nominating Committee formulated standards and procedures for dismissal of representative director mainly from the viewpoints of qualifications, legislations, compliance, and financial performance. In the event representative director is in violation of the dismissal criteria, upon proposal from the Nominating Committee, the Board of Directors shall proceed to dismissal of the said representative director in accordance with predetermined procedures.

(Principle 4-8 Effective Use of Independent Directors)

The Company's Directors consists of eight directors, four of whom meet the requirements of independent directors set by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. Four of independent outside directors are composed of persons with high experience in listed companies, professional knowledge and experience as a lawyer. The reasons for the appointment are described in detail in "II. Business Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems for Decision-Making, Business Execution, and Management Oversight" of this Corporate Governance Report.

Four of independent outside directors have sufficient qualifications in the light of purpose of this system. The Company believes that these independent outside directors can contribute to medium- and long- term improvement of corporate value.

Each chairperson of the Audit Committee, the Nominating Committee, and the Compensation Committee is serving as an independent outside director.

(Principle 4-9 Standards for Independence and Qualifications of Independent Directors)

The Company has established the independence standards of Outside Directors as follows, and appoints Outside Directors through judgement their independency from the Company.

- ① Director (excluding outside director), corporate auditor (excluding outside corporate auditor), executive officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiaries in the ten years before taking office.
- ② Major shareholder, or director, auditor, accounting advisor, executive officer, manager or employee of the Company or its subsidiary, if shareholder is corporation or owns(owned) 10% or more its voting rights in the present or the past five years.
- ③ The business partner that has made payment equivalent to 2% or more of the Company's annual consolidated net sales in the most recent fiscal year or the past three fiscal years, or, director, auditor, accounting advisor, executive officer, manager or employee of the business partner.
- ④ The business partner that has received payment equivalent to 2% or more of the Company's annual consolidated net sales in the most recent fiscal year or the past three fiscal years, or, director, auditor, accounting advisor, executive officer, manager or employee of the business partner.
- ⑤ Partner or employee of audit corporation appointed by the Company in the past three years.

- ⑦ Person who has belonged to the organization such as corporation or union which has received donation of ten million yen or more from the Company in the past three years.

⑧ The above ①~⑦'s spouse, relative within the second degree, or relative living together.

(Supplementary Principle 4-10① Utilization of Optional Structure)

In April 2017, the Company established the Nominating Committee which shall advise and make proposal to the Board of Directors in accordance with selection criteria of candidate for representative director, directors of the Board of Directors and important executive managers.

In November 2018, the Company established the Compensation Committee which shall advise and make proposal for formulation of compensation policy for representative director and directors of the Board of Directors, institutional design of compensation scheme, and others.

Each committee is chaired by outside director.

(Supplementary Principle 4-11① Preconditions for ensuring the effectiveness of the Board of Directors)

The Company set the policy to select the most suitable candidate for director based on the standard of "person who can understand and promote corporate vision, management policy and values, and contribute to future-growth of corporate value from a long-term perspective", regardless of nationality or sex, whether they are internal or external.

Each of current directors has significant business experiences abroad.

One of the directors and Audit Committee members is a lawyer who is familiar with corporate legal affairs.

The Company conducts evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors on a regular basis once a year in a questionnaire format, in order to improve its functionalities.

(Supplementary Principle 4-11② Preconditions for ensuring the effectiveness of the Board of Directors)

The Company designates a full-time director out of directors who are Audit Committee members, so that the said person shall be able to focus time and effort on duties necessary to execute roles and responsibilities properly. If a director concurrently serves as a director or equivalents of another listed company, the Company considers that the number of concurrent offices should be limited to the extent where the said director can ensure attendances at the Board of Directors of the Company, and shall disclose the status of concurrent offices and the number of attendances at the Board of Directors in the Notice of Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting of the Company.

(Supplementary Principle 4-14② Director and Auditor Training)

The Board of Directors is working to give its members the opportunity to attend beneficial trainings and workshops. Also, it provides its directors and Audit Committee members with necessary trainings and materials related to the contents which they should know in common. Furthermore, it exchanges information on other companies' information and management practices at the Board of Directors. It shall make an annual training plan in the future, aiming for much better effectiveness.

(Principle 5-1 Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders)

The Company has posted "Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders" on its website.

"Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders":

http://investors.wacom.com/media/files/investor-relations/2019-english/policy_for_constructive_dialogue_with_shareholders_final.pdf

(Principle 5-2 Formulation and Announcement of Corporate Strategies and Business Plan)

The Company has set the target of consolidated return on capital (ROE) in its corporate strategies and business plan, as an indicator of profitability and capital efficiency, in consideration of assumed shareholders' equity cost. Regarding the allocation of important management resources such as capital expenditures and R&D, the Company is working on business management with hurdle rate in mind as the constituent elements of assumed shareholders' equity cost.

Based on the above policy, the Company shall work to sustainably improve shareholders' value through constructive dialogue with shareholders.

Policy on Determining Compensation Amounts and Calculation Methods	Yes

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Compensation Amounts and Calculation Methods

President & representative director of the Board of Directors and chairperson of the Compensation Committee shall decide individual amount of compensation for directors (excluding Audit Committee member) within the total amount of compensation approved at Shareholders' Meeting. This decision has to be made according to the calculation method which was proposed by the Compensation Committee (not statutorily required to establish, composed of three or more directors of which more than half are outside directors) and resolved at the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee shall decide individual amount of compensation for Audit Committee members within the total amount of compensation approved at Shareholder's Meeting.

The authorized persons to decide the amount of compensation for directors of the Company, or the policy to decide calculation method of individual amount of compensation are as follows:

- The Shareholders' Meeting is authorized for total amount of compensation.
- The Board of Directors is authorized for calculation method of individual amount of compensation.
- President & representative director and chairperson of the Compensation Committee who are delegated by the Board of Directors are authorized for individual amount of compensation.

Compensation for members of the Board of Directors is composed of performance-linked and non-performance-linked portion, and proportion is determined by each position and distributed within 20 to 40% for performance linked and 60 to 80% for non-performance-linked, as follows:

- Performance-linked compensation is applied to members of the Board of Directors excluding outside directors and directors who are members of Audit Committee, and composed of "short-term incentive" and "long-term incentive."
"Short-term incentive" is designed to reflect attainment of financial target of the Company and individual performance for a single financial year, and paid once a year.
"Long-term incentive" is designed to reflect middle-to-long term financial target and stock price of the Company to share common interests with shareholders. Whether to execute this program shall be determined by comprehensive examination on factors including actual financial performance of the Company for the prior fiscal year.
Indicators for the performance-linked compensation shall be proposed by the Compensation Committee to the Board of Directors for resolution every year.
- Non-performance-linked compensation is fixed, paid monthly, and applied to all members of the Board of Directors.

Actions taken in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019:

- Multiple financial indices were set for the short-term incentive, centered on consolidated operating profit, as the Company recognizes its importance for management KPI to "focus on profitability." The amount of short-term compensation was determined to reflect attainment of each financial target, according to approved calculation method.

Others

The Company has institutionally no Advisors ("sodanyaku" nor "komon," etc.)
Mr. Masahiko Yamada, the former Representative Director, President & CEO, retired from representative director, president and CEO as of March 31, 2018. His term of office as a director of the Company expired at the conclusion of the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting held on June 22, 2018, and he entirely left the Company.

2. Matters on Functions such as Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination, and Compensation Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System)

The Company adopts a Company with Audit Committee (from June 2015), and makes prompt and appropriate decisions covering whole range of corporate management at the Board of Directors held monthly in general.

The eight directors of the Company, including three Audit Committee members, are responsible for supervising the performance of management by examining the determination of management policy, the establishment of execution plan and the progress of implementation. In addition, the Company appoints representative director of the Company as group CEO and assigns responsible person to each business unit to accelerate speed of business execution and enhance its responsiveness to changes in business environment. The Company regularly holds the Executive Committee, and examines progress of the business plan of each business unit together with individual issues related to business execution from the practical perspective for necessary actions. Responsible person assigned to each affiliated company establishes and operates internal control system at each affiliated company, ensuring the appropriateness of doing businesses and its approval processes.

Each Audit Committee member attends important meetings such as the Board of Directors to monitor execution of duties by directors. In addition, the Audit Committee annually formulates program and policies for audit and discusses with group CEO. In order to realize high transparency and fairness in management of the Company, it enhances clarification of responsibilities in the management to shareholders by setting the term of director who is not an Audit Committee member as one year.

In April 2017, the Company established the Nominating Committee, of which an outside director takes office as a chairperson, to formulate selection criteria of candidate for representative director, directors of the Board of Directors and important executive managers, and make proposal to the Board of Directors. Concerning selections of candidate for appointment, the Company's policy stands on no discriminations such as gender and nationality, however the current Board of Directors consists of all males.

In November 26, 2018, the Company established the Compensation Committee, of which an outside director takes office as a chairperson, to advise and make proposal for formulation of compensation policy for representative director and directors of the Board of Directors, institutional design of compensation scheme, and others. The Committee is in examination mainly on designing of the institutional compensation scheme and implementation of performance-linked compensation utilizing treasury stocks.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

In June 2015, the Company changed to a Company with Audit Committee from a Company with Corporate Auditors. The Audit Committee members participate in resolution as a director at the Board of Directors, holding authority for auditing as Corporate Auditors. The reason to change was to enhance supervisory function and accelerate speed of decision-making of the Board of Directors.
